

$180,000

In the late '90's Ms. Kerr perpetrated a complicated and terrifying financial scam involving fraud, forgery and intimidation and identity theft against this victim. One of the devastating results from her frightening and heartless criminal scheme was the loss of a tremendous amount of money.

Eventually, the law caught up to her and she was arrested, charged and convicted of multiple felonies and spent a significant amount of time in jail. Furthermore, the victim sued her for $57,431.57 which in truth, was not the full amount that was stolen.

A civil judgment was entered for the victim and Ms. Kerr was ordered to pay back the $57,431.57.

Ms. Kerr never complied with the order make restitution to the victim. Not one cent of it.

In the ensuing years since that judgment was entered, the law allows for interest in the amount of 5% per year to added to the judgment amount. In 2021 the amount Ms. Kerr owes to this individual has increased to approximately $180,000.
